New York City Singer Songwriter Rachael Sage to tour Japan in December

October 4, 2007, New York, NY - New York City art-pop siren Rachael Sage has announced an upcoming tour of Japan. Six dates are planned from the 5th to the 11th of December, including two shows in Tokyo. The tour will begin in Amasaki City and wrap up in Nagoya. This tour will be the first for Sage in Japan.

The shows will feature songs from Rachael's current album, "THE BLISTERING SUN" (MPress Records, '06), as well as some brand new material. Sage seduces listeners with sensual vocal/piano hooks and intensely poetic lyrics. Rachael has performed alongside Sarah McLachlan, Melissa Etheridge, The Animals, The Pretenders and Colin Hay (Men at Work). Winner of the 2005 Independent Music Award, Sage performs over 150 dates a year throughout the U.S. and Europe.
